

Mark Harrison

Your alias:

Mark, Marcus

Family:

Divorced; 3 girls: Reed 27, Celeste 25, and Anne Walker 21

Anything you would like to share about your family:

My girls are great, grown and entertain me greatly.

Your profession:

I am a principal in my own architectural firm. Since 1982. Custom residential, commercial

College, reform school; major(s); degree(s):

Cornell University, Masters in City and Regional Planning, 1981
University of Tennessee, Bachelor of Architecture, 1979

Your avocations (civic, social, political, charitable):

Cheekwood Fine Arts Center, Nashville; Nashville Opera and Ballet, Swan Ball, Nashville; American Institute of Architects; etc.

Your hobbies, interests:

My work, my home and my yard are hobbies!
I really enjoy a big social event at a home I've designed!

Your greatest contribution to the betterment of mankind:

Three beautiful and "well balanced" children that will add to society v. take from it!

What has your time and education at Asheville School meant to you:

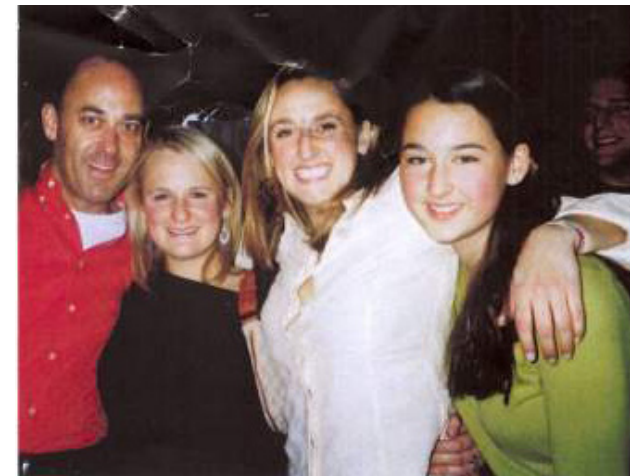

Friends, structure, organization, priorities, independence, and self-sufficiency. And some damn stress dealing with it!

What are your most vivid memories of Asheville School:

Snowball fight • Juniors vs. Seniors 1973, Sunday morning chapel / coffee. The Dining Hall / waiting. Our first class of girl day students, Barbara Beard.

What else would you like to share (here is your chance to boast and outshine your classmates.

How could anyone "outshine" this group?

Mark